

I'm writing in support of the proposed action to require TV and radio stations to tape broadcasts to provide records to handle disputes regarding decency. With today's digital recording technology it is inexpensive and should be a simple procedure to archive the files. I support this effort. Thank you.